CEOs® IN SCHOOLS

What is CEOs in Schools?

Nearly 150 Tampa Bay area CEOs volunteer an entire day at Hillsborough County public elementary schools where they gain a new perspective on the role of schools in preparing students for the future workforce and share their knowledge and experience to help principals find innovative ways to achieve their goals.

About the day:

The plan for the day is up to the CEO and principal. Meeting prior to the event will help you both determine opportunities and challenges at the school.

Some ideas include greeting students as they come in, attending planning meetings, serving lunches, teaching classes, planning curriculum, meeting with the guidance counselor or anything that includes engaging in daily activities at the school.

Why get involved?

Students benefit from meeting positive role models & seeing professionals show an interest in them.

CEOs learn about the challenges & opportunities in public schools that are preparing the future workforce. .

Relationships between CEOs & principals can result in solutions that improve our community.
